

RHODODENDRON

If someone asked you how many varieties of rhododendrons existed what would you guess? 10, 100, 1000? Well there are about 2800 different varieties of rhododendron! Can you imagine?

Rhododendrons come in lots of different colours and can grow to various different sizes.

The Guinness World Record for the tallest rhododendron is one on Mount Japfu, Kohima, Nagaland in India. Measured in 1993 it was 33 metres tall and is still growing!

QUICK QUIZ: TRUE OR FALSE

1. Rhododendrons are poisonous
2. Rhododendrons are only pink and red
3. Rhododendrons cannot grow more than two metres tall
4. They can be called Rose Trees
5. They are annual plants, they can only live for one year

CAN YOU FOLLOW THE PATHS TO HELP
HAMISH THE HEDGEHOG FIND HIS FRIEND
REBECCA ROBIN?

